

To Whom It May Concern,

I hear you are interested in seeing what Walter Jacobson can do for you.

Allow me to share my experiences with Walter. We have worked together for over a year now, and in that time, I have never felt let down or truly disappointed. He works hard to make sure every part of the logistics process runs smoothly. He is good about coming to us to know how he can improve his services, and has met with us before to iron out the process by which we work together to make everyone's time easier and the process of shipping more efficient. His loyalty towards his own integrity and standards of service are clear. We are very fortunate to have made the connection we have with Walter, and because of him, we have undoubtedly improved our logistics.

I would recommend him to anyone looking to step up their shipping game. I have confidence in saying that he will work quickly and thoroughly, and maintain a strong positive attitude in times of busyness and when working with difficult loads. That is all I have ever known of him.

Sincerely,

Asher Labrousse
